

The instant traffic and weather offered by XM Radio is an invaluable tool to my husband as he is an over the road truck driver. Knowing ahead of time about traffic situations not only saves me valuable time sitting in urban traffic but lessens the work of law enforcement indealing with excess traffic at a particular area of concern.

To me it is more of a public service than just a commercial venture.